

GOSSIP

Mr. Ronald A. Fletcher, of Victoria Street, Cabramatta, was amongst those who had the degree of Bachelor of Arts conferred on them at the recent Centenary Celebrations of Sydney University on Saturday, 10th May.

The many friends of Mrs. Hooper, of Cathcart Street, will be sorry to hear she is to enter Auburn District Hospital next week, and all join in wishing her a speedy recovery.

Work commenced on Tuesday on the bowling green at St. John's Park.

The Mayor, Ald. Phil Ryan, told us this week that he is pleased with the manner in which the public was responding to the appeal for relief for the pensioners. He said that already a large amount of wood, gift clothing and blankets had been distributed.

Fairfield police have awaiting identification several ladies' and gent's bicycles. Anyone who has lost a cycle is asked to call at the police box and see if it is among the collection.

Mr and Mrs. Dave Woods, of York Street, Fairfield, accompanied by sons Jeff and Greg, and baby daughter, Leigh, spent the week-end with friends at Katoomba.

Mr. Richards, who always has a cheery greeting for customers of the news-stand on Canley Vale railway station, is convalescing after an operation in Prince Alfred Hospital.

Mrs. Mascall, of 252 Hamilton Road, Fairfield, returned home last week-end from Yaralla Repatriation Hospital where she has been a patient for the last three months. Although much improved in health Mrs. Mascall has to take things very easy for some time. Her friends wish her a complete return to good health.

Mr. Evan Green, of North St., Fairfield, a few days ago sustained a nasty cut on his head. He suddenly stood up and collided with a piece of timber at his home.